SELLER'S DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Instructions to the Seller for Seller's Disclosure Statement

These Instructions are to assist the Seller in completing the required Seller's Disclosure Statement in order to comply with the District of Columbia Residential Real Property Seller Disclosure Act.

1. Who must complete the Seller's Disclosure Statement? The Seller, not the broker and not the management company, condominium association, cooperative association or homeowners association.

2. In what types of transactions must the Seller provide the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Purchaser? The Act applies to the following types of transfers or sales of District of Columbia real estate:

- (a) where the property consists of one to four residential dwelling units, and,
- (b) the transaction's a sale, exchange, installment land contract, lease with an option to purchase, or any other option to purchase, and,
- (c) the purchaser expresses, in writing, an interest to reside in the property to be transferred.

However, the Act does not apply to:

- (a) court ordered transfers;
- (b) transfers to a mortgagee by a mortgagor in default;
- (c) transfers by sale under a power of sale in a deed of trust or mortgage or any foreclosure sale under a decree of foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosures;
- (d) transfers by a non-occupant fiduciary administering a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship or trust;
- (e) transfers between co-tenants;
- (f) transfers made to the transferor's spouse, parent, grandparent, child, grandchild or sibling (or any combinations of the foregoing);
- (g) transfer between spouses under a divorce judgment incidental to such a judgment;
- (h) transfers or exchanges to or from any governmental entity; and
- (i) transfers made by a person of newly constructed residential property that has not been inhabited.

3. When does the Seller's Disclosure Statement have to be provided to the Purchaser? In a sale, before or at the time the prospective transferee executes a purchase agreement with the transferor. In an installment sales contract (where a binding purchase contract has not been executed), or in the case of a lease with no option to purchase, before or at the time the prospective transferee executes the installment sales contract or lease with the transferor.

4. What information must the Seller disclose? Answer ALL questions on the Seller's Disclosure Statement. If some items do not apply to your property, check "N/A" (not applicable). If you do not know the facts, check "UNKNOWN". Report actually known conditions referred to in the questions. Each disclosure must be made in "good faith" (honesty in fact in the making of the disclosure). Attach additional pages with your signature if additional space is required.

The Seller of a condominium unit, cooperative unit, or a lot in a homeowners association, is to provide information only as to the Seller's unit or lot, and not as to any common elements, common areas or other areas outside of the unit or lot.

This is the required Seller's Disclosure Statement approved by the Washington, DC Board of Real Estate.

SELLER'S DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
Instructions to the Seller for Seller's Disclosure Statement

5. What is the remedy if the Seller does not provide the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Transferee? If the Seller's Disclosure Statement is delivered after the purchaser executes the purchase agreement, installment sales contract or lease with an option to purchase, the purchaser may terminate the transaction by written notice to the seller not more than five (5) calendar days after receipt of the Seller's Disclosure Statement by the purchaser, and the deposit must be returned to the purchaser. The right to terminate is waived if not exercised before the earliest of:

- (a) the making of an application for a mortgage loan (if the lender discloses that the right to rescind terminates on submission of the application); or
- (b) settlement or date of occupancy in the case of a sale; or
- (c) occupancy in the case of a lease with an option to purchase.

6. If the Seller finds out different information after providing the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Purchaser, how does this impact a ratified contract? If information becomes inaccurate after delivery of the disclosure form, the inaccuracy shall not be grounds for terminating the transaction.

7. How must a Seller deliver the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Transferee? The Seller's Disclosure Statement must be delivered by personal delivery, facsimile delivery, or by registered mail to the transferee. Execution by the transferor of a facsimile is considered execution of the original.

Lead Paint - Federal Disclosure

Disclosure of Information on Lead-Based Paint and Lead-Based Paint Hazards

RE: 1325 18th St., NW, Washington, DC 20036

Property Address

LEAD WARNING STATEMENT

Every purchaser/tenant of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The seller/landlord of any interest in residential real property is required to provide the buyer/tenant with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the seller's/landlord's possession and notify the buyer/tenant of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase/lease.

SELLER'S/LANDLORD'S DISCLOSURE (initial)

LEAD DISCLOSURE FORM

Federal Lead Warning Statement: Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not managed properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, lessors must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Lessees must also receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention.

ADDRESS OF PROPERTY, INCLUDING UNIT NUMBER IF ANY:

1325 18th St., NW
Washington, DC 20036

The District of Columbia "Lead-Hazard Prevention and Elimination Act of 2008," as amended (the "Act"), D.C. Official Code § 8-231.01 et seq., requires an owner of a residential property constructed before 1978 to disclose the information contained in this Lead Disclosure Form to prospective tenants or prospective property purchasers, before any change in occupancy or contract for possession is executed. Owners are required to disclose specific information which they know or reasonably should know about the property related to the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards, and any pending actions ordered under the Act. To meet the requirements of this law, you must complete this Lead Disclosure Form.

I am the owner or authorized owner's agent of (Insert Full Address of Property)
1325 18th St., NW #402 Washington, D.C. 20036
and affirm that the following answers state what I reasonably know about my property.

CHECK ONE BOX UNDER A, B, AND C, BELOW.

A. Check one of the following 3 statements that accurately describes what you know about the presence of lead-based paint on your property:

Lead-based paint is known or reasonably known to be present on the interior or on the exterior of the property (including common areas, if applicable), at the following locations (specify components, rooms, and any other relevant details, and provide access to any available record or report about the presence of lead-based paint at this property):

To my knowledge, lead-based paint is not known or reasonably known to be present on the interior or on the exterior of the property, including common areas. I will provide access to any record or report I have about the absence of lead-based paint at this property.

While lead-based paint is not known by me to be present in the dwelling unit, it is presumed to be there, because the dwelling unit was constructed prior to 1978.

B. Check one of the following 2 statements that accurately describes what you know or reasonably should know about the condition of your property:

NOTE: The following definitions must be followed to comply with District law.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA DEFINITION OF LEAD-BASED PAINT HAZARD: "Lead-based paint hazard" means any condition that causes exposure to lead from lead- contaminated dust, lead-contaminated soil, deteriorated lead-based paint or presumed lead-based paint, or lead-based paint or presumed lead-based paint that is disturbed without containment. See D.C. Official Code § 8-231.01(22).

DEFINITION OF PRESUMED LEAD-BASED PAINT: "Presumed lead-based paint" means paint or other surface coating affixed to a component in or on a dwelling unit or child-occupied facility, constructed prior to 1978. See D.C. Official Code § 8-231.01(32).

I have reason to believe a lead-based paint hazard is present on the interior or on the exterior of the property (including common areas, if applicable), at the following locations (specify components, rooms, and any other relevant details, and provide access to any available record or report about the presence of lead-based paint hazards at this property):

To my knowledge, lead-based paint hazards are not present nor likely to be present on the interior or on the exterior of the property, including common areas, if applicable. I will provide access to any record or report I have about the absence of lead-based paint hazards at this property.

C. Check one of the following 2 statements that accurately describes whether any government action is currently pending, with respect to your property or unit:

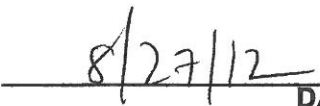

There are currently no pending actions ordered by a District Government agency with respect to the property listed above.

There are currently pending actions that have been ordered by a District Government agency with respect to this property, as follows:

By my signature below, I agree that this Lead Disclosure Form states information about my property or unit listed above, which is reasonably known to me, and that I have answered the questions in this form truthfully. I also agree to comply with the Act's requirement that I provide this information to my prospective tenants, as well as to any prospective purchasers, before they are under any contract to purchase or lease a dwelling unit. I understand that falsification of any information provided or required in this document may subject me to civil or criminal penalties. D.C. Official Code § 8-231.15(b) and § 8-231.16(b).
